The Voice of the Martyrs presents a Canadian national tour of

SOLITARY REFINEMENT

"Right now, in over 50 countries, there are tens of thousands of Christians being persecuted for their faith – many giving their lives. The outstanding production of 'Solitary Refinement' is just the right antidote for our complacency and ignorance. Actor Dennis Hassell portrays the compelling story of Richard Wurmbrand with a stunning performance. This is a once in a lifetime opportunity. Don't miss it."

~ Dave Toycen, Christian Humanitarian, Retired President/CEO World Vision Canada

How can a man survive 14 years of imprisonment and torture?
How can he emerge smiling?

Discover the answers in a fascinating journey of real-life transformation:
"In the midst of our deepest darkness, comes God's overwhelming light."

WHERE: Fairview Baptist Church—130 Colbourne St., Lindsay, ON

WHEN: Sunday, February 9th, 2020 at 7:00 pm

This immersive live stage experience is based on the best-selling books of Richard Wurmbrand, and on persecution today. The nationally touring show takes you deep into the Christian underground church of 1930's Romania, to discover unimaginable suffering -- and unmistakable joy.

The script is written by award-winning international artist Dennis J. Hassell, directed by triple Dora Award nominee Tom Carson (four national touring productions), with original music composed by Emmy-winner and renowned recording artist Tom Szczesniak.

This area-wide event is sponsored by The Voice of the Martyrs Canada (VOMC), in partnership with theregional church host, for the entire local community. A registered charitable organization, VOMC serving as executive producer, has a 40-year record of pioneering work around the world for those in peril for practising their faith in Christ.
